

BRAINY

Brain Injury Resources, Awareness, Information and Networking for Youth

Peer-support groups for children and youth whose parents or other loved ones have an acquired brain injury. We will focus on showing participants they are not alone in their experience, providing resources, encouraging recreational after-school activities, and offering education on brain injury and its effects. Thanks to The Calgary Foundation for making these groups possible.

Groups are free of charge!

For children and youth between the ages of 6 and 18

Groups are offered in the evening
